

Colliery Dust Control (Pty) Ltd. develops and manufactures the components for integrated dust suppression systems used on continuous miners and road headers for underground and surface applications.

Colliery Dust Control is a South African based organisation, in the business of the design, manufacture and supply of integrated dust suppression systems for various underground mining applications.

CDC is renowned for its 24-hour customer support consisting of a service exchange scheme and maintenance contracts. Our ability to support our customers at all times has set us apart from other players in the industry. The company has adopted a family approach and are driven by innovation and commitment to the mining industry.

We have created value through proven technologies and highly skilled staff to provide a sustainable solution to the industry. CDC is South Africa's largest supplier of dust suppression systems for continuous miners and enjoys considerable market share in South Africa. CDC has also supplied products to overseas markets.

We strive to be a respected global enterprise, working under the banner of continuous product and service improvement, guided by sound corporate governance processes.